THEY CLAIMED TO BE OLD ENOUGH TO GET MARRIED

A couple appeared at the office of the county clerk yesterday afternoon and requested a marriage license. To the clerk a marriage license was an item of routine, consequently he proceeded calmly to accede to the joy seekers' request. The girl possessed a superabundance of mirth and split it in to dainty ripples of laughter, which at first annoyed the clerk but later aroused his suspicion. When he looked up from his writing the young bride-to-be straightened her giggles some muscles so quickly there was danger of facial distortion. The contract was all ready to sign. She gave her age as 18; he as 21.

"How odd," mused the license dispenser, "that they are both just over the marriageable line."

As the winsome visitors departed, the father one cast a sheepish look of explosive glee over the shoulder of her life's guardian towards the bewildered clerk and cackled:

"Gee; didn't we put one over on him on our ages; this blow will kill mother; oh, you sixteen-year-old liar!"

"Not so loud," admonished he with masculine wisdom, "we aren't out of the court house yet!"

The marriage licenses issued today were as follows:

Vandy H. Layman 23, and Ceralia Tucker 22, both of Ogden.

Franklin G. Walton, 21 and Leona P. Goalen, 18, both of Salt Lake City.

John Williams and Belle Mason, both of Ouray, Colorado.

SELLS-FLOTO GRANTED RIGHT TO SHOW IN THE CITY

Sells-Flooto circus has been granted a license to show on the corner of Twenty-seventh street and Grant avenue the latter part of this month.

Immediately following the departure of the Great Robinson Shows a number of citizens residing near the place where the carnival was held, sent a petition to the city commissioners requesting that no more shows be allowed to give their performance on that lot as it was obnoxious in many ways and the debris left by them was offensive. The commission deferred the license to Sells-Flooto, until the signers of the former petition agreed to withdraw their names. It is said that the reason for the withdrawal of the protests is the fact that a circus for one night is less objectionable than a noisy carnival operating for a solid week.

DEMOCRATS TO HOLD A CONVENTION ON AUGUST 18

Calling of a Democratic County Convention at which delegates will be named to the state judicial district and congressional conventions, together with announcement of a date for the judicial district convention, started the political ball rolling in the Democratic party. The call, as issued by the county chairman, S. S. Smith, and secretary S. P. Dobbs, announces that a convention will be held August 5th which will select fifty delegates to attend each of the three major conventions, sets out that the said conventions—state, judicial district and congressional—will be held in Ogden on August 18th, next—which is news so far as the judicial district convention is concerned, and leaves to the delegates to the August 5th meeting the task of setting a date for that county convention at which the county ticket will be named.

Primaries for the election of delegates to both Democratic conventions in Weber county—that at which delegates to the big conventions will be selected and that at which the county ticket will be named—will be held in the county precincts at such times and places as may be selected by the chairman. The call announced that the city wards would all meet at the Court House on the evening of August 1st, but some opposition to this plan is said to have arisen, with the probable result that a meeting will be held in each municipal ward.

Weber Democrats believe that Joseph Chez should be, and will be, the party's candidate for Congressional honors in the First District of Utah. Mr. Chez, who is now state senator from this county, has so far refused to make a statement of candidacy, and close friends said yesterday that he was not in any sense a candidate. From the higher ranks of the county Democracy comes, however, the intimation that Mr. Chez is believed to be the strongest man whom the party can nominate, and the further intimation that the Ogden attorney is too good a soldier to refuse to obey orders, if the convention sees fit to issue them.

For the county officers, numerous candidates have been mentioned, but as yet with the date of selection still unfixed, there does not seem to be any great amount of activity. It is intimated that the Bourbon legislative ticket may prove a surprise in many ways, and that the party leaders hope to put into the field an exceptionally strong slate of these officers. D. D. McKay is probably the most talked of

A Million New Savers in 1916

This year, the one hundredth anniversary of the opening of the first savings bank in America, will be observed by the enrollment of "a million new money savers."

Will You Be One of Them?

There is every reason why you should save money. Your future demands that you do it.

Life's opportunities are grasped by the money savers. Homes are built and paid for by the money saver. The world's industries are financed by the money savers. The stores, the factories, the railroads—all enterprises, great and small, are made possible by thrift—personal capital acquired by self-mastery.

Do you want to cut a figure in the world's progress? Do you want to rise to your best possibilities? Do you want your dreams of success to come true?

Then Be a Regular Money Saver

If you are already a spasmodic "once-in-a-while" money saver, be a regular upstanding, honest-to-goodness one. Build up that account of yours. Wear a path to the bank window.

If there is someone in whose success and happiness you are interested, guide him or her to the savings bank window.

NO NEED OF BIG NAVY FOR U. S.

La Follette Continues Vigorous Attack on Naval Program and Proposed Increases.

MEXICAN SITUATION

Believes People Will Stand Overwhelmingly Against Putting Flag Behind Investors in Mexico.

Washington, July 20.—Resuming his attack on the naval program today Senator LaFollette reiterated his declaration that the proposed doubling of expenditures for military purposes had been actuated by selfish interests, instead of patriotism, and asserted that there was not a military, economic or political reason to warrant the proposed appropriations.

"The logic of the whole world situation is against necessity for these proposed increases," he said.

During his speech Senator LaFollette turned to the Mexican situation and Senator Lewis, Democrat, asked if he stood with President Wilson against intervention in Mexico.

"I sincerely hope," replied Senator LaFollette, "that the standard bearer of the Republican party in the coming campaign will not feel himself constrained to take the position that it is the duty of the United States to put the flag of the United States behind investors in Mexico. President Wilson declared in his Detroit speech that he would not stand for that principle and that he would not become the collecting agent of investors in Mexico. The American people, if that issue is made between the Republican candidate and Mr. Wilson on that proposition, will stand overwhelmingly by the president."

REPUBLICANS PLAN CAMPAIGN

New York, July 20.—William R. Wilcox, chairman of the Republican national committee, called the campaign committee together here today for the first time for the purpose of discussing the general features of the Republican campaign which opens actively next month with a month's tour throughout the west by Mr. Charles E. Hughes.

Mr. Hughes conferred informally with each member of the committee present, telling him what his ideas were in regard to the itinerary. Of the seventeen members of the committee twelve were present, the absentees, with one exception, being from points on the Pacific coast. "Special consideration will be given to the campaign in Maine," read a statement by Chairman Wilcox. "The committee is thoroughly impressed with the desirability of carrying Maine in the September elections and will exert every effort in conjunction with the national committee to that end."

THE GREAT "SOO" CANALS.

At a time when there is a tendency toward well-merited criticism of Federal appropriations for River and Harbor improvements in the United States, it is worth while to focus attention on at least one notable project of this nature, against which no indictment for uselessness or extravagance can lie, which has had an enormous influence on the development of internal commerce, and which is still a most valuable artery of communication. Such is the Saint Marys Falls Canal at Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, through which passes annually a volume of freight traffic over twice as large as that going through the Suez Canal. Indeed in a single day, November 14, 1915, there passed through these American and Canadian canals 125 vessels whose aggregate registered tonnage was 386,706, laden with freight amounting to 624,916 tons.

From a small passage through which the bateaux and canoes of the trappers and traders of 1798 were hauled by oxen in order to surmount the strong and dangerous rapids at this point, there have been developed on both sides of the river canal systems with elaborate locks that can handle the largest bulk freighters of Lake commerce. Indeed the encouragement thus given to large craft has made possible the economical shipping of ores from Minnesota and Michigan to blast furnaces in Ohio, New York, and Pennsylvania, not to mention the transportation of grain and other commodities to eastern States at a minimum of cost. When it is realized that in the season of 1915, 17,699 steamers, 1884 sailing and unrigged craft, and 1650 unregistered vessels passed through the American and Canadian canals at Sault Ste. Marie, laden with freight valued at $882,263,141 and carrying 50,236 passengers, the importance of this great system of locks and canals will be appreciated.

Alaska has forbidden the employment of boys under 16 years of age underground in mines. Hawaii has passed a curfew law for girls under 16 in Honolulu; the Philippines have provided for dental clinics in schools, and created a public welfare board to establish and maintain social centers; and Porto Rico has passed a modern juvenile court law.
